Title: The Wilderness Test

Verse: Deut 8:1-10

KWANGMO'S CORNER

Athletes train for one singular purpose. They endure hours of physical training and make sacrifices daily to ensure that the next time they compete, victory is within their grasp. Do we have that same discipline in our relationship with God? Are we preparing for the race that Paul calls us to run in by living our lives in a godly manner?

We must continually put in the effort required to walk along side God. Whether we are in the right mood or not, our spiritual health must not be neglected, and we must never relent our pursuit of godliness. Ask God for the strength, endurance and discipline to live a godly life.

1 Timothy 4:7 – Rather train yourself for godliness;
