SERMON NOTES

KWANGMO'S CORNER

There is pressure to succeed in our lives. We want good grades, accolades at work, honor our families, and so many obligations that require a tremendous amount of effort from us. Sometimes, we even feel the same pressure in our spiritual lives. Will God love me if I serve at church or read my bible and pray daily? Will these things guarantee my salvation? Sometimes, our desire for acknowledgement is incorrectly applied to our faith. Paul says, "For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith". We are saved by grace, not by our works. God does not love us any more for our success, nor does he love us any less for our failures. He loves us so much that he paid the price for our salvation. All we do is accept this gift and allow ourselves to be saved. "For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God" – Ephesians 2:8 ESV
