SERMON NOTES

Pastor: Pastor Daniel Rhee
Title: God Despite Us
Verse: 1 Corinthians 10:1-13

KWANGMO'S CORNER

Our initial perception of whatever we come across is filtered through our sense of sight. What you see automatically makes an impression on what you think of that person, place, or thing. The experiences you have are what feeds the "light" within you. Jesus commands us to stay vigilant of what our eyes consume, so that our bodies will be nurtured in a healthy manner. He wants us to reflect what is inside of us to the world, so that He and God may be glorified in this manner. The wellbeing of our hearts and souls starts with the wellbeing of our eyes.

"The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are healthy, your whole body will be full of light" – Matthew 6:22
