Title: Repent and Do

Verse: Revelations 2:1-7

KWANGMO'S CORNER

Our relationships in life are maintained and sustained through communication with one another. You reach out to the individual in question to see how they are doing; listen to any struggles they may be undergoing or to simply enjoy their company as you make conversation. But how often do we approach our Father in prayer, to come to Him with our fears, joys, hopes, our struggles? Through the sacrifice of the cross we have been given a new life, and prayer is how we cultivate that gift into something that is pleasing to God. Jesus' life and ministry is shaped by His prayer and we would do well to imitate the ardor, faith and love that is evident in His time with the Father.

"...one of His disciples said to Him, 'Lord, teach us to pray...'— Luke 11:1
