KWANGMO'S CORNER

Who is your neighbor? Is it the person that lives next to you? Your co-worker? The cashier at your grocer? Jesus commands us to love our neighbor. To follow Him means to treat anyone we come across with the care and attention we would give ourselves. Jesus gave us an example of what love looks like through his service to the destitute, ostracized, and His disciples. He spent time with them, gave them a part of Himself. If you don't find the strength to love others, and maybe even yourself, ask God for the Holy Spirit to fill you. Seek the means to love and serve others, and He will give it to you.

For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself" – Galatians 5:14
